fun game love the boxes well worth 3.99. Really challenging difficult level, a really fun horde mode which you can prepare your base each turn and works kind of a tower defense! After each mission you receive xp and loot boxes.

I didn't find any bugs on my playtime, but I had played after the recent updates. I think the game would enrich with some interface improvements and commands. It was hard aiming to throw granades and setting up my inventory was a bit confusing as well.

My overall opinion it's still a game with some points to improve but its systems like aiming to shoot, discovering how some items work and the xp\/loot box features give a rewarding feeling after the gameplay loop.. It is a good shooting games
The only thing I find it is quite annoying is I want to open all my boxes at once.
